FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

RODMAN RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

CHARLESTON -- Krystale Rodman, daughter of David and Patricia Rodman of Findlay, is the recipient of a Donald L. and Clara Alice Seaman Shawver Scholarship from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

Donald Shawver was a faculty member in marketing at Eastern after retiring from the University of Missouri. He also was the first recipient of the School of Business' first Distinguished Alumnus Award. Alice Shawver is currently on the Business Advisory Board for the School of Business and is a past president of Eastern's Foundation Board.

The recipient of a Shawver Scholarship must be a resident of the central Illinois region who has demonstrated high scholarship ability.

A 1995 graduate of Findlay Junior Senior High School, Rodman is a sophomore accounting major.

Eastern, located in Charleston, is a public, residential university that places priority on teaching excellence. More than 11,000 students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. University faculty are involved in a wide range of research and public service activities.
